Well informed online
Fast online ordering
Onlineshop for specialist traders

You can forget the haystack.

No more desperately looking for a particular needle in the assortment.
Or a particular application.

Your core competence as a specialist trader lies not in searching, but in finding.
Therefore, you will certainly find our online shop good. If you like, even during work, at night or on weekends.

Order by tablet, PC and smartphone

The VENO online shop can be accessed with the device of your choice. Use your smartphone, PC or tablet – just as you like. The shop layout is suitable for any technology.

From now on you will always have an article overview and order form at hand. Even outside your business premises.

And if you just want to surf for great ideas: For our specialist traders we are open 24 hours a day!

Better online instead of „oh no!

Colour chart not at hand? No idea where your order form is? A customer requires a very specific button and you simply cannot find it? „Oh no!“

VENO provides you with the perfect overview online and prevents sighing shocks. You can navigate directly to the item your customer wants to buy. Or you can present him with the complete article group so that he can make his choice at his leisure.

The contemporary way to business success is clearly via www.veno.com
